How we will calculate your balance: We use the method called "average daily balance (including new purchases)." See your account agreement for more details.

Billing Rights: Information on your rights to dispute transactions and how to exercise those rights is provided in your account agreement.

Other Disclosures

Late Payment:

A late charge of 5% of the payment amount due with a minimum fee of $8 and a maximum of $25; or the amount of the required minimum payment, whichever is less, if you are late in making your payment disclosed on your billing statement.

Returned Payment:

$25 or the amount of the required minimum payment, whichever is less.

-Loss of Introductory Rate:

We may cease your Introductory Rate and apply the Standard APR disclosed above if you make a late payment. During the introductory Rate term, when you make six (6) consecutive payments on time, we may enable your Introductory Rate for the remaining introductory term.

*Variable Rate Information: The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE you receive is determined based on your creditworthiness and will vary with the market based on the Prime Rate plus a margin. The rate is determined by adding a "Margin" to an "Index Rate." The "Margin" for your Visa® card will be determined when your card is approved and disclosed to you on your Account Opening Disclosure. For each billing period, the "Index Rate" is the Prime Rate as published in the Wall Street Journal on the 5th day of the preceding month. If the Journal is not published on that day, we use the Journal from the immediately preceding available date. Any change in the Index will result in changes in your Annual Percentage Rate (APR) for new Purchases, Balance Transfers, Cash advances and existing balances on the first day of the next billing cycle. If the periodic rate and corresponding APR increases, the Finance Charge will increase and your Minimum Payment may be greater. The Annual Percentage Rate will never be greater than 18%, or the maximum rate allowed by law, whichever is less.

Collection & Legal Fees: You may be charged fees for collection of this account, including, but not limited to, reasonable court costs and actual attorney fees charged to the Credit Union by an attorney who is not employed solely by this Credit Union.

Rates, fees, and terms may change: We may change the rates, fees, and terms of your account at any time for any reason. These reasons may be based on information in your credit report, such as your failure to make payments to other creditors when due, amounts owed to other creditors, the number of credit accounts outstanding or the number of credit inquiries. These reasons may also include competitive or market-related factors. If we make a change for any of these reasons, you will receive a 45-day advance notice in writing and a right to opt out in accordance with applicable law.
